

How to Update Your Listing

If a listing has been accepted for inclusion in the directory and you want to change it or add a photo you may do so by logging into the site. As long as your account is recognized as the owner of the listing you will have the option to edit it. If you are not recognized as the owner of the listing, please use the "claim" link in the listing to request ownership.